Review: As an disciple, one with multiple seminary degrees, pastor, church planter and urban apologist this has been indispensable! Most of conservative seminaries tend to engage western history but virtually glaze over early Africa Christianity! Although Oden's work is a primer, it is helpful! I'm doing ministry among minorities and mystery cults in urban environments...

Description: Africa has played a decisive role in the formation of Christian culture from its infancy. Some of the most decisive intellectual achievements of Christianity were explored and understood in Africa before they were in Europe. If this is so, why is Christianity so often perceived in Africa as a Western colonial import? How can Christians in Northern and...
